*T*his year's annual is built around and features our new school building. It is therefore most fitting and proper that we dedicate this page to the voters and taxpayers whose ambitions for better educational facilities have made these improvements possible.

KENNETH J. CECIL

The Jester Staff of Knoxville High School is proud to dedicate the 1955 Jester to Kenneth J. Cecil, President of the Board of Education.

For his devotion to the cause of better education, and for the time and effort he has so freely given, we express our appreciation.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1955

We, the senior class of 1955, have now completed four of the most memorable years of our lives. Let us reminisce.

As freshmen, we were led by Dick Hughes, president; Sarah Lacy, vice-president; and Jack Gladfelter, secretary-treasurer. Student Council representatives were Kay Markham and Ralph Chism. Our Homecoming float won a first prize, and Sheryl McCue was third maid-of-honor in the coronation.

Our second year we chose Gene Bradbury as president; Carol Wetterburg, vice-president; Kay Markham, secretary-treasurer; Jan England and Dick Hughes, our Student Council representatives. Sarah Lacy was second attendant to the Homecoming queen and also represented the sophomores on the varsity cheering squad.

As juniors, we elected Sarah Lacy, president; Milt Marquith, vice-president; Barb Lundgren, secretary-treasurer; Carol Ann Tucker, Gary Cowman, Gene Bradbury, Barbara Lundgren and Sarah Lacy to the Council. Barb was attendant to the Homecoming queen. Our float won first prize; our skit, second. Sarah and Carol Ann were varsity cheerleaders.

Carol Wetterburg and Frank Wright had leads in "You Can't Take It With You". We successfully sponsored the Junior-Senior prom. Sarah Lacy and Barb Lundgren were chosen Jester and Blue Bulletin editors respectively.

In our last year we elected Chuck Philblad, president; Gilbert Moore, vice-president; and Jan England, secretary-treasurer. Sarah Lacy was Student Council president, while Carol Tucker and Gene Bradbury were the representatives.

At Homecoming Barb Lundgren was escorted by Gene Bradbury, football captain, and crowned queen by Mr. Litchfield. First maid-of-honor Carol Ann Tucker was escorted by Chuck Philblad, basketball captain; second maid-of-honor Sarah Lacy, by Bill Wise, track captain.

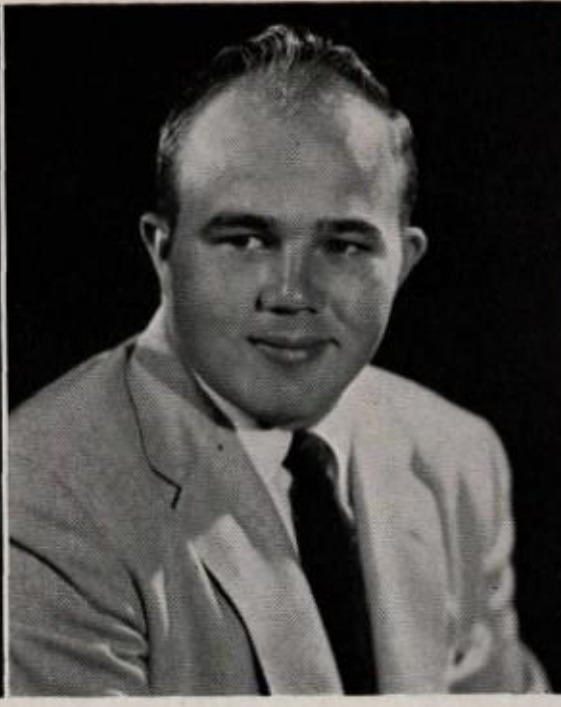

Sarah, Barb and Carol Ann led varsity yells. The senior play, "Nine Girls", featured an all-girl cast. Then came the prom, the trip to the Ozarks, baccalaureate and graduation to climax our four years.

We wish to thank our senior sponsors, Miss Lindrothe, Mrs. Dibden, Mr. Miller and Mr. Litchfield; also, Dr. Prince, previous sponsors, teachers and friends who have made our stay so pleasant.

CLASS OF 1956

The class of 1956, under the guidance of Miss Irma Gullett, Miss Virginia Jarvis, Mr. Harold Kulat, and Mr. Don Zimmerman, successfully completed the junior year at Knoxville High School.

In the first few weeks of school, Ernie Bybee was chosen president; Don Cowman, vice-president; Dorothy Whitson, secretary-treasurer; Pat LaFollette, Jerry Smith, and Jim Tarochione, Student Council representatives. Ernie Bybee served as vice-president of the Student Council; and Judy Block, as secretary-treasurer. These officers proved to be capable and efficient.

Petite Patsy Cottom was chosen to represent the class in the Homecoming festivities. She was chosen to attend the first maid-of-honor. The theme of the class float, which won second prize in the Homecoming parade, was "Mow 'Em Down".

Many of the junior boys proved very valuable to the varsity football, basketball, track, baseball, and golf teams. Judy Block was chosen from the class to support the athletic boys as varsity cheerleader.

We were proud to have three of our junior girls as majorettes for the Knoxville High School band. These girls were Pat Miller, Jo Ann Hughbanks, and Sharon James. Judy Block and Sandra Westerfield were chosen in the spring of 1954 to edit the Jester and Blue Bulletin respectively.

Several money-making projects were sponsored by the class throughout the year. The class sold stationery, birthday calendars and sponsored a chili supper and held a dance after a basketball game.

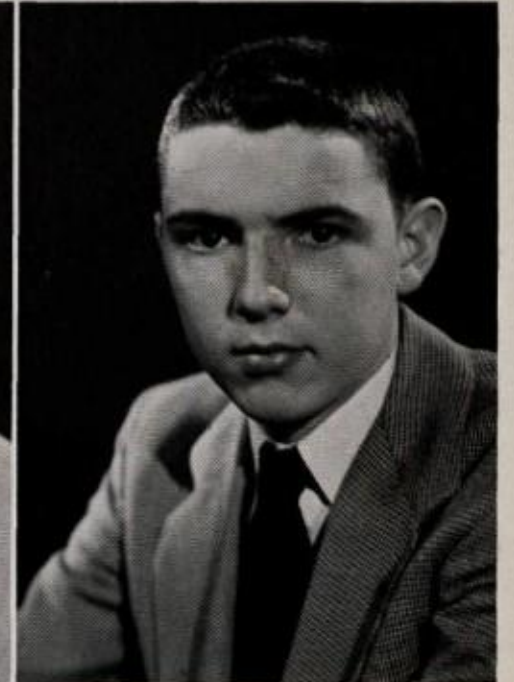

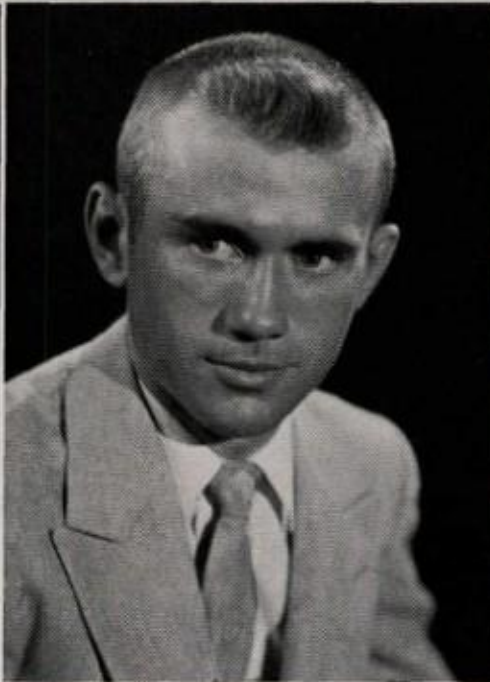

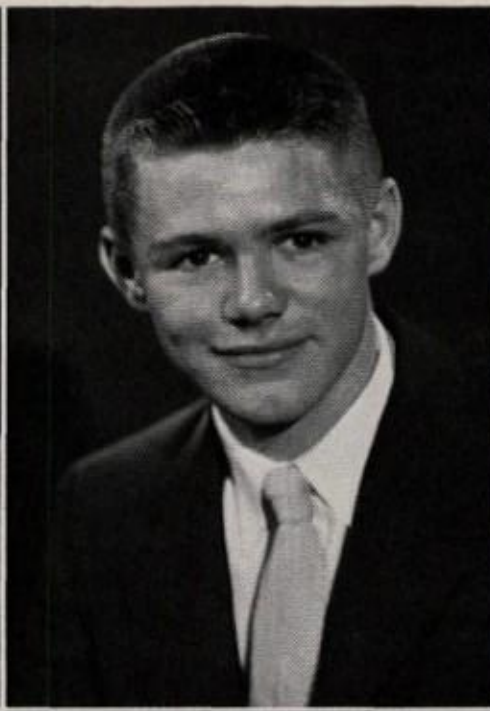

One of the main attractions of the spring months was the tryouts and practices for the Junior play. The play was directed by Mrs. Grace Van den Heurk.

The highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior prom held on the night of May 6 at the Galesburg Club.

We wish to thank our advisers for their cooperation and assistance throughout the year.

The junior advisers were: Mr. Harold Kulat, Mr. Donald Zimmerman, Miss Irma Gullett, and Miss Virginia Jarvis.

CLASS OF 1957

President, George Clark; vice-president, Joe Markley; and secretary-treasurer, Ardathe Stone; capably led our sophomore class through its second year in high school. Carol Peterson and Jim Marks served the class in the Student Council. Advisers were Mrs. Patricia White as chairman, Mrs. Grace Van den Heurk, Miss Sally Hopkins, Jake Reams, and Wellesley Goodwin.

Judy Anderson, the class candidate for Homecoming attendant, was attendant to the second maid-of-honor.

This class was represented in many different sports, clubs and activities. Pam Beecher, Ardathe Stone, Marilee Vedell, and Marcia Randall, Junior Varsity cheerleaders, rallied the J. V.'s on to greater efforts. Several boys went out for various athletics and greatly helped the teams.

Each of the 76 members of the class worked hard for the goal of $1000 with such money-making projects as selling Christmas wreaths and having bake sales.

We wish to thank our sponsors for their kind help.

Jane Fuller, Myron Upp, Lance Humphreys, Mr. Fred Leafgren, Rod Godsil, Miss Jeanette Shearer, Jeannie McMillan, Mrs. Ruth Leasure, and Mr. John King.

CLASS OF 1958

We eighty-one freshmen entered the modern portals of KHS last year under the watchful eyes of vengeful seniors, who couldn't wait for initiation day. Now we have completed our first year, with only three left until graduation.

To put us on the right track, we chose Rod Godsil as our president; Myron Upp as vice-president; and Jeannie McMillan as our secretary-treasurer. Jane Fuller and Lance Humphreys represented the class in the Student Council. Judy Hutchcroft took Jane's place for the last half year.

During the initiation of October 12, Bill Boen and Diana Hughes reigned as freshman king and queen.

Ila Bybee, chosen as the Homecoming attendant, was in the queen's court.

Many boys went out for athletics and helped their respective teams notably. Ila Bybee and Darlene Rader were chosen to cheer for the junior high football and basketball teams.

To help raise our treasury balance, we sold stationery. Entering a float and a skit in the Homecoming was another project.

Miss Jeanette Shearer as chairman, Mrs. Ruth Leasure, Fred Leafgren, and John King were our very helpful class sponsors.

First row: Darlene Austin, Martha Gustafson, and Earlene Griffith.

SCIENCE CLUB

A very active club at KHS is the Science Club. Gil Moore was the president, while Chuck Philblad, Gene Bradbury, and Judy Moore served as vice-president, treasurer, and secretary respectively. The main function of this club is to help students study certain scientific projects and to better acquaint them with the science field.

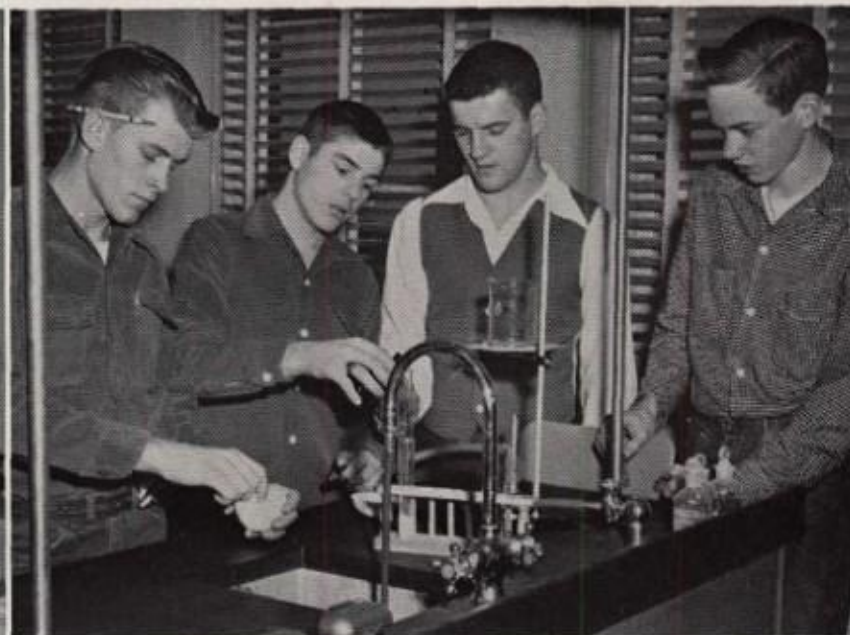

The club gained in membership from last year as there was a total of 21 members. During the year several trips were taken to various places to see science projects.

Mr. Fred Leafgren was the capable sponsor of the Science Club. This was Mr. Leafgren's first year at KHS, but he lost no time in organizing an intelligent and smoothly-run organization. During the year the members learned how to run the movie projector.

JUNIOR HIGH SCIENCE CLUB JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior High Science Club was headed by Bill Moore, president; Sue Smith, vice-president; and Ann Ring, secretary-treasurer. John King was the faculty adviser.

Though the club was not very active this first year, members sold candy in the halls for a money-making project.

The Junior Red Cross was led by Janet Larson, president; Bill Boen, vice-president; Linda Hutchinson, secretary-treasurer; Sally Terry, publicity chairman; David Dinsmore and Sharon Washabaugh, senior sponsors. Adviser Duane Johnson was chairman of all Red Cross activities.

First row: L. Thompson, S. Smith, D. Burmood.

 Fourth row: B. Boen, D. McCoy, D. Dinsmore, N. Earnst, D. Johnson.

LIBRARY CLUB

Sharon James, president, led the Library Club through its fifth year; Joyce James was vice-president; and Virginia Tilton served as secretary-treasurer for the second consecutive year. Miss Lindrothe was the club sponsor.

In this service club there were 20 members. Thirteen members were privileged to serve as library cadets. Three members were in Junior High.

A Christmas party in the library and a scavenger hunt in town were the parties of the year. Members of the club decorated the library for the Christmas season.

To finance various projects, the club sold greeting cards and stationery.

Library Club meetings were Wednesday in the library during "gold week."

Most of the club members have Library Club pins which have been purchased for the last two years.

The purpose of the Library Club is assistance in the library. Cadets do such things as checking in and out books, putting them back on the shelves, and aiding Miss Lindrothe in other library work.

Because of the larger library which seats 84 people, there was a need to have two cadets on duty each period.

First row: L. Potter, Miss H. Lindrothe, P. Witt, S. Poole, J. James. Second row: M. O'Dean, J. McMillan, J. Moore, M. Wells, N. Condreay, M. Lane, J. McNaught, R. McCune, D. Zimmerman, V. Tilton, J. Pferschy, S. James, R. Carr, A. Zanders, and P. Miller.

 Fourth row: T. Liston, S. Lacy, B. Ouderkirk, D. England, J. England, D. Hughes, J. Smith, J. Tarochione, J. Philblad, J. Marks, M. Stinebaugh.

The Latin Club, composed of 43 members, was active in all school activities this year. Carole Carlson presided over the club; Don England served as vice-president; and Ruth Ann Gustafson, as secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Huston lent her helping hand as adviser of the club.

Initiation of 13 freshmen was the first event of the year. This took the form of a potluck supper on September 24.

After working hard on an original Homecoming skit, the club walked off with first place honors for the third consecutive year.

The Christmas tea was held on December 20 for the mothers of all the Latin Club members.

The main and last event of the year was the annual Roman banquet which took place in April. Members dressed in togas and reclined on the floor to eat the Roman meal prepared by the mothers.

 Seventh row: A. Motter, F. Wright, J. Monkman, J. Scalf, D. Hughes, G. Moore, C. Philblad.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The fifth year of the Dramatics Club at KHS was organized under the direction of Mrs. Grace Van den Heurk. Capably leading the club this year were Gilbert Moore, president; Jackie Smith, vice-president; and Pat Carlson, secretary-treasurer.

Candy sold in the halls was one of the main projects for making money. Another important factor in the financing of the club was the booth at the Jester Carnival.

On February 26, 21 members boarded a chartered bus bound for Chicago to see "The King and I" at the Shubert Theater.

The 47 club members enjoyed a very interesting year.

G. Van den Heurk, adviser; J. Smith, vice-president;

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

As a new club at KHS this year, the F.H.A. had for leaders: president, Patsy Cottom; vice-president, Kay Markham; secretary, Carol Peterson; treasurer, Carolyn Steck; and parliamentarian, Barb Lundgren. Miss Virginia Jarvis was head adviser and Mrs. Harriette Huston was co-adviser.

These officers, dressed in white, were installed by the Yates City chapter of the F.H.A. in a candlelight ceremony. All 67 members attended this event on November 22.

To help spread the Christmas spirit, members planned a program and presented it at the P.E.O. Home.

In the Homecoming festivities, the F.H.A. captured first prize with their walking float.

Valentine's Day was the theme of their dance held in the gym on January 22.

As a money-making project, the F.H.A. sponsored a square dance and box social on February 3.

A tea was held in the spring in honor of eighth grade girls. The purpose of this was to point out the activities of the club to girls who may wish to join.

The F.H.A. carried its share of school activities and has been a great addition to KHS.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The school year 1954-1955 saw a new organization at KHS, the Girls' Athletic Association. Leading the girls were president, Carol Ann Tucker; vice-president, Pat LaFollette; secretary, Janet England; treasurer, Jill Block; and point-keeper, Jo Ann Hughbanks. The physical education teacher, Mrs. Pat White, was the adviser. At the end of the first semester, Miss Sally Hopkins very capably took over the duties of Mrs. White.

The annual hike was the first event of the year. Chili was served and then the new members were initiated.

Later in the year, the girls went swimming at the YMCA in Galesburg. Then January and February brought the bowling season. In December, a semi-formal dance was held in the gym with decorations of "Winter Wonderland". Near the end of the year the athletic banquet and the formal dance were held.

Many money-making projects were sponsored by the G.A.A. Among those were selling pencils with the basketball schedules on them, pom-poms, candy in the halls; also, bakesales, a silent auction, and the booth at the Jester Carnival.

During February and March G.A.A. girls bowled at the Galesburg Bowl.

C. Steck, J. Block, J. Moore, V. Luxmore, S. Hopkins.

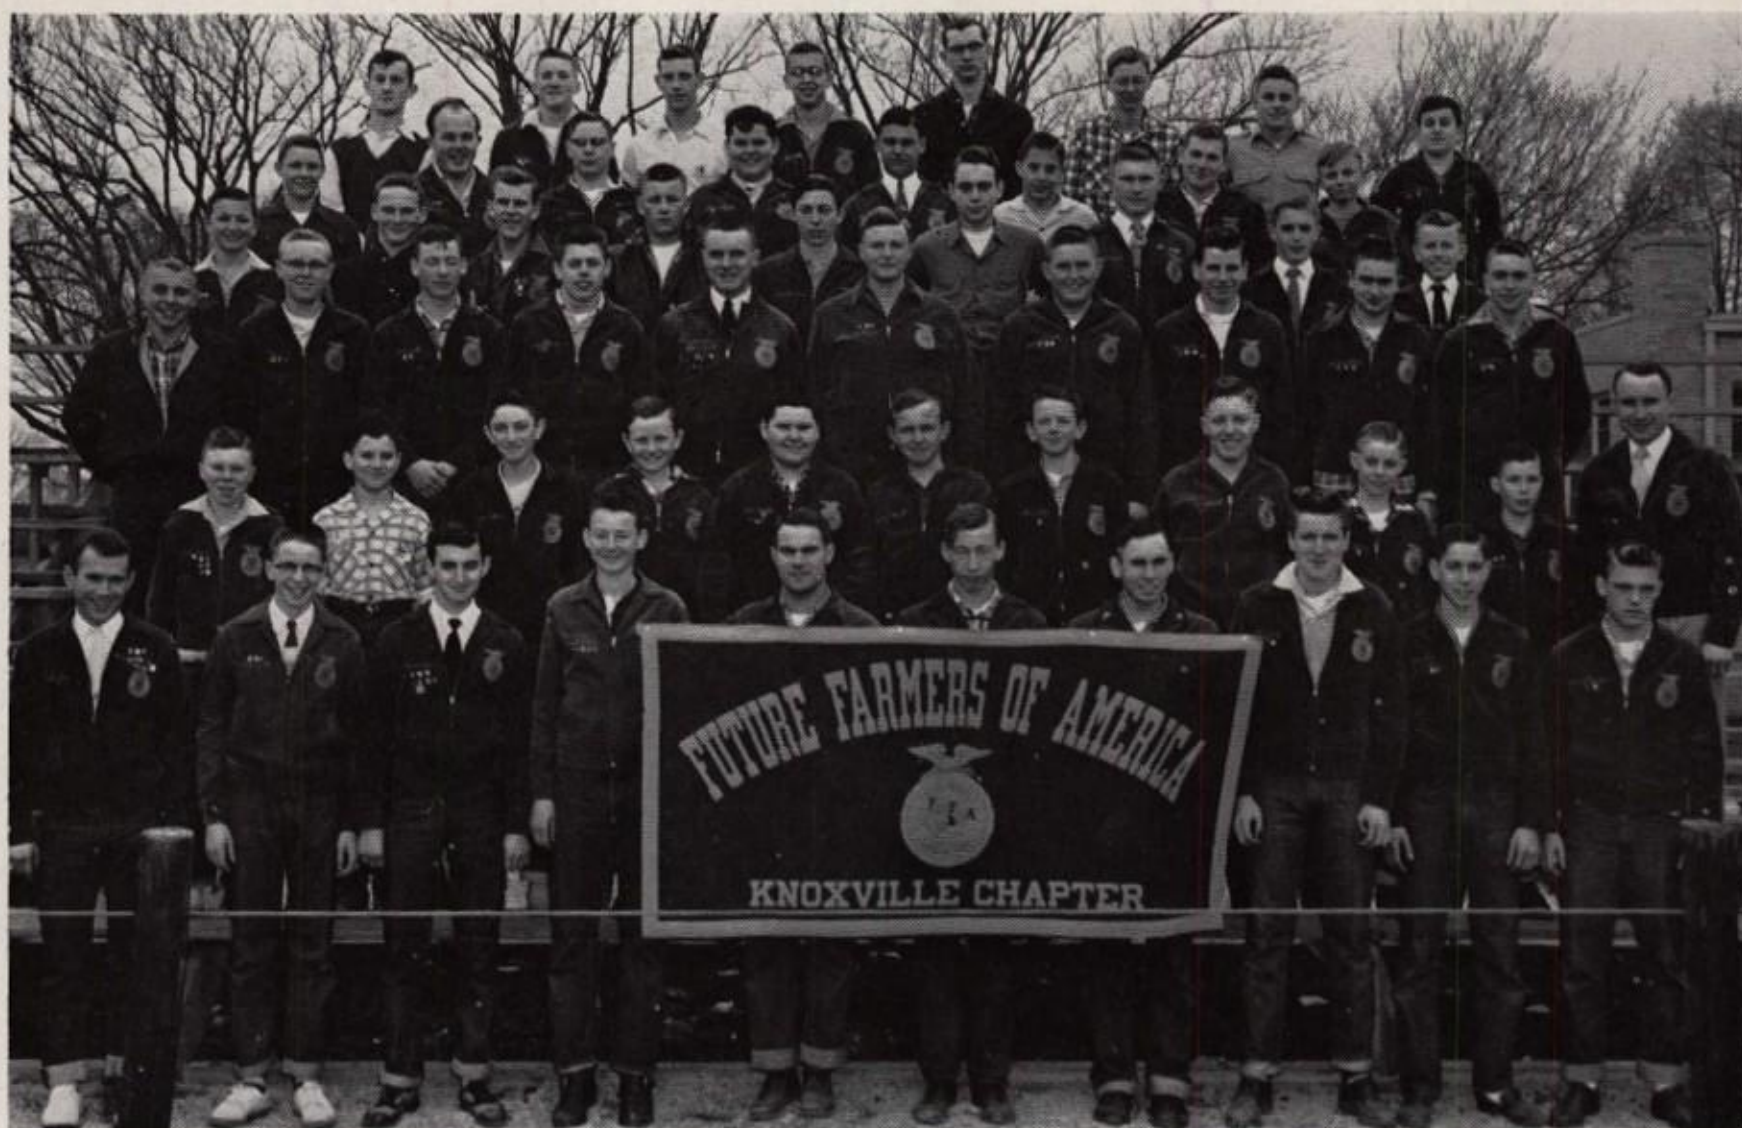

In April the G.A.A. girls took part in basketball tournaments and ping-pong tournaments.

S. Washabaugh, E. Stomberg, J. Anderson, D. Rader, C. Tuthill, N. Somberger, M. Tuthill, J. Hutchcroft.

Treasurer, J. Block; vice-president, P. LaFollette; president, C. Tucker. Point-keeper, J. Hughbanks; adviser, S. Hopkins; secretary, J. England.

Don Powell, reporter; James Litchfield, adviser; Don Cowman, treasurer; Gary Cowman, president; Bill Wise, vice-president; Ernie Bybee, secretary; Frank Delost, sentinel; Joe Markley, second vice-president.

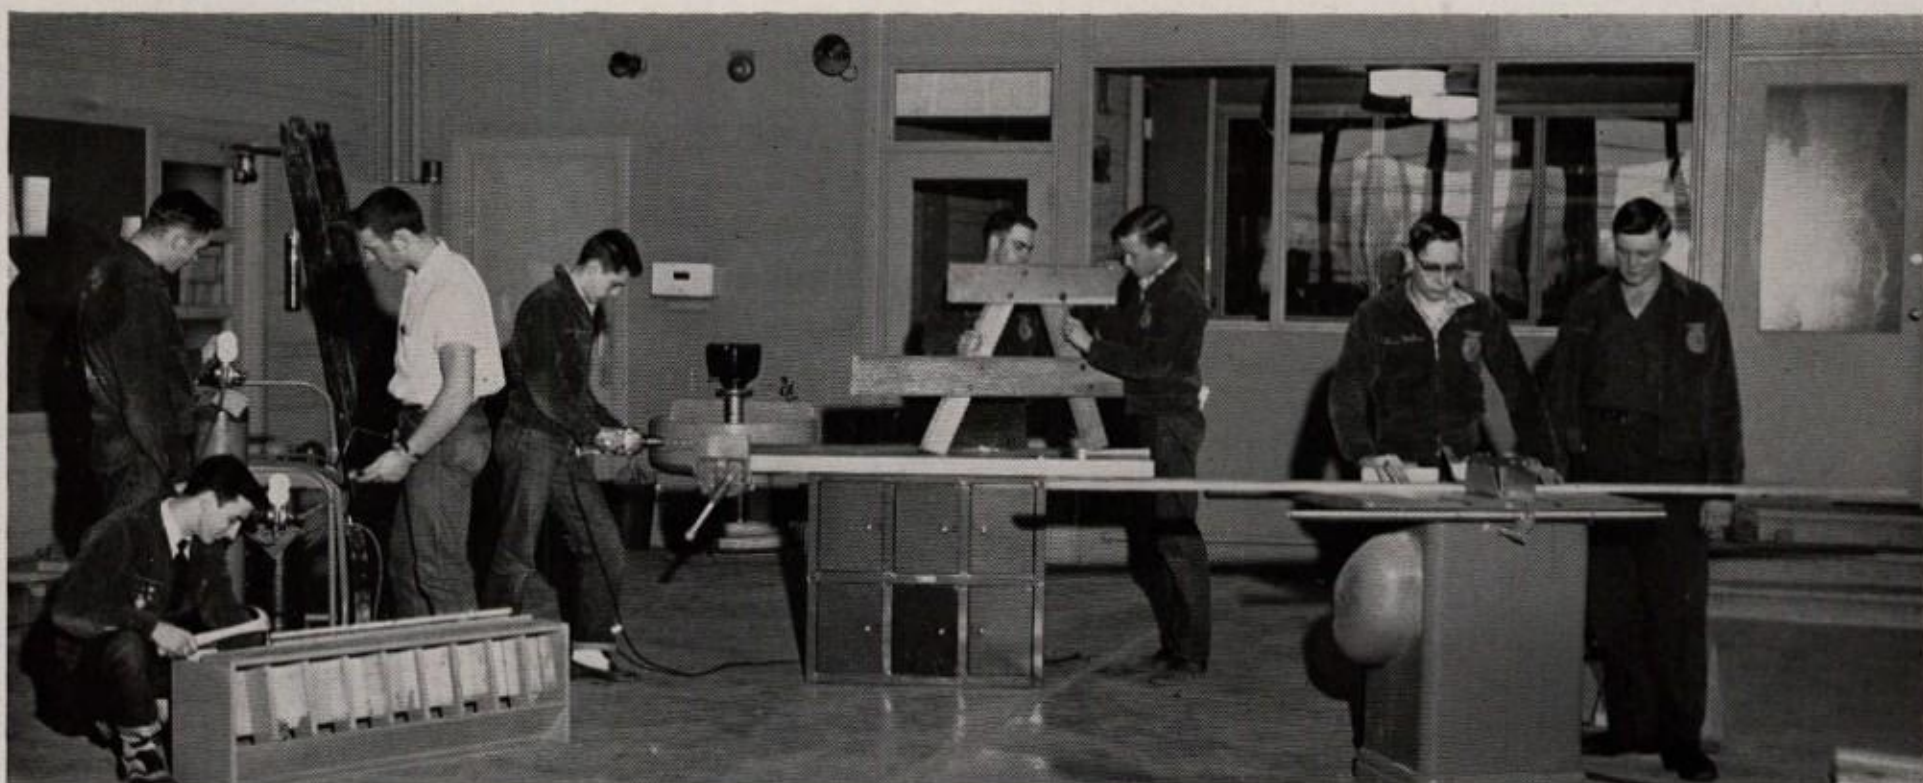

FFA continued again this year with James Litchfield as the adviser; Gary Cowman was president; Bill Wise, vice-president; Joe Markley, second vice-president; Ernie Bybee, secretary; Don Cowman, treasurer; and Frank Delost, sentinel.

During the last part of July, 45 of the Ag boys traveled to Stronghurst, Illinois, to take part in the FFA Fair. Then in the first week of August, some of the boys showed their projects at the Knox County Fair; in the last part of August, some of the members moved on to show at the Illinois State Fair. Also during the summer, the Ag chapter had a swimming party at Lake Bracken.

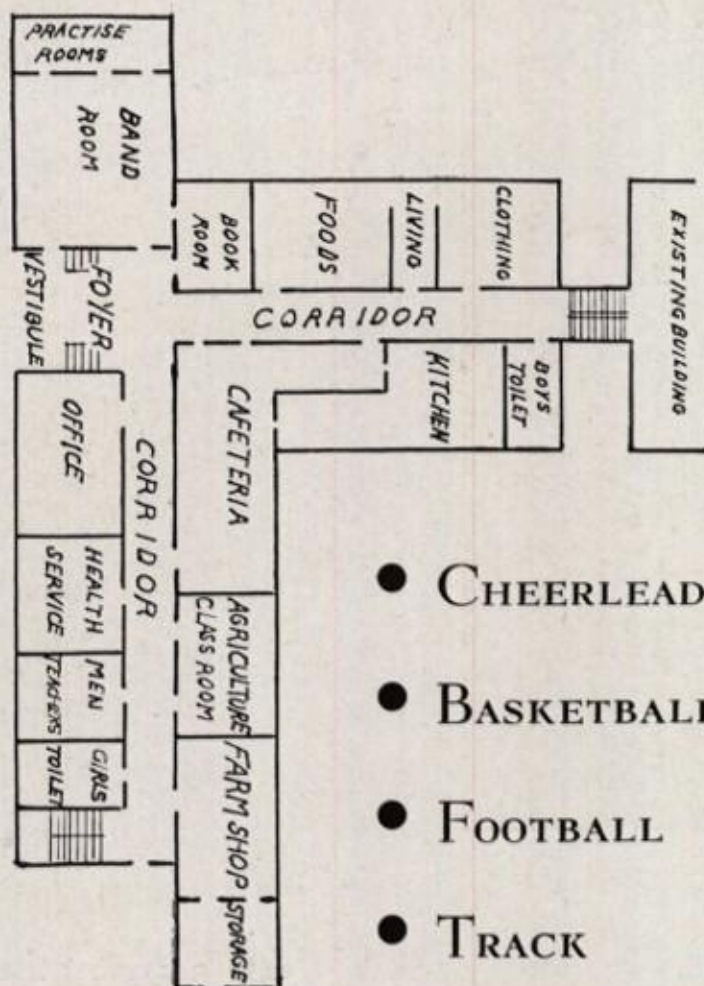

A September meeting was held to acquaint the new members and their parents with the FFA. In October, the group held their annual hayrack ride and weiner roast. This year they invited the FHA members. In this same month was the initiation of the greenhands.

For their Homecoming float, they had a scene entitled "We'll Clean Their Plow." Early in December the FFA took a trip to Chicago to see the International Livestock Show. Then on April 1, the annual FFA banquet was held for the members and their parents.

The FFA is now bigger than it has ever been before, with a membership of 58.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Four cute, pert and peppy cheerleaders, Sarah Lacy, Barbara Lundgren, Carol Tucker and Judy Block, led the yells that inspired the Blue Bullets to win many victories this past season.

During football season our varsity cheerleaders wore gold corduroy slacks, white sweaters with a blue "K", and white bucks. Basketball season brought a new design in the cheering outfits of these girls. They were royal blue corduroy outfits lined with gold satin.

B. Lundgren, J. Block, S. Lacy, and C. Tucker.

Our four snappy sophomore cheerleaders, Marcia Randall, Ardathe Stone, Marilee Vedell, and Pam Beecher, did an excellent job in leading their team to a victorious season. The girls led yells at the reserve football games this year in their blue slacks and white sweaters. Navy velveteen outfits lined and trimmed in gold satin were worn throughout the basketball season.

A. Stone, M. Vedell, M. Randall, and P. Beecher.

The junior varsity cheerleaders this year were: Darleen Rader, Sue Woolsey, Ila Bybee, and Joyce Carter. Great enthusiasm was raised in the Junior High by these girls during the football and basketball seasons. Their two piece outfits were gold velveteen trimmed with blue satin.

D. Rader, S. Woolsey, I. Bybee, and J. Carter.

Cheering for their team at the games and in all pep assemblies were: Irene Spurgeon, Joan Gordon, Carol Wooldridge, and Janet Larson. These ambitious girls led many yells to add enthusiasm and pep to the junior high pony games. These girls wore blue satin outfits with gold inset pleats.

I. Spurgeon, C. Wooldridge, and J. Larson. Absent from picture: J. Gordon.

1954-1955 VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1954-1955 varsity basketball team compiled a highly respectable season record of 16 wins and 10 losses. The Bullets started out on the right foot, winning three out of their first four games. Three of the 10 losses were to a powerful delegation from Abingdon. This year's edition of the Bullets was known for its strong bench strength. Knoxville undoubtedly had some of the strongest reserve power in this area.

In the annual Knox County Tournament, Knoxville won a third place by spilling a good ROVA team 46-43. Knoxville finished in a second place tie with Aledo in the contest for the Little Six title.

The Knoxville cagers were led by coach John King and captain Charles Philblad.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Under their capable mentor, Jack Miller, the 1954-1955 junior varsity basketball squad completed a very successful season. They emerged without a loss, giving them a season's record of 20 wins and no losses. Our junior varsity compiled one of the most impressive records in the state. During the season two of these boys occasionally dressed for varsity competition.

J. Miller, F. Olin, D. Dinsmore, R. Godsil, B. Ellege, J. Philblad, G. Clark, M. Taylor, J. Marks, J. Markley, and C. Stevens.

JR. HIGH VARSITY

The 1954-1955 Junior High varsity cagers were coached by Jack Manuel. The ability of these freshmen fortells great success for future teams at KHS.

First row: D Simpkins, T. England, G. Tasker, J. West-erfield, R. Nelson, D. McCoy, R. Godsil, B. Wickwire, M. Stinebaugh.

Second row: G. Stinebaugh, B. Boen, R. Luallen, L. Humphreys, L. Martin, C. Scalf, J. Manuel.

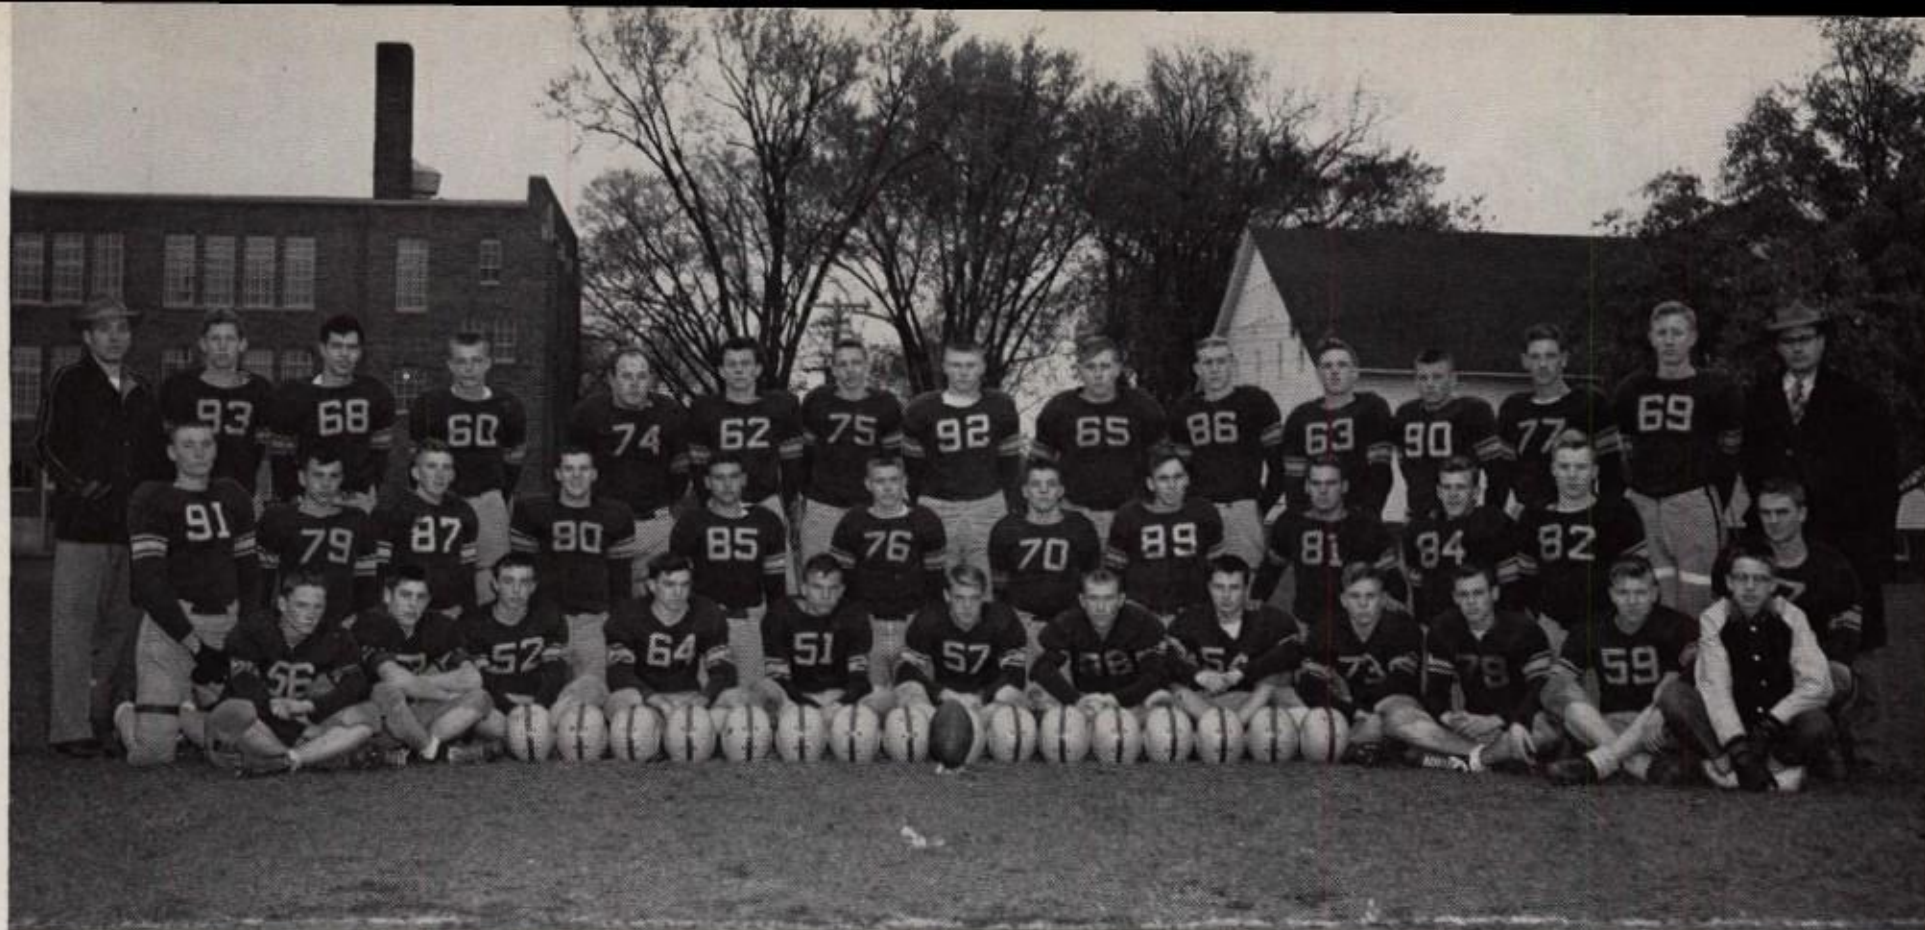

JR. HIGH PONY

Fourteen seventh and eighth grade boys comprised the Junior High pony cage team, which was ably coached by Joseph Jones. The eagerness of these boys is a true indication of their future participation in the sport.

First row: J. Peterson, T. Hoyme, J. Stockton, D. John-son, J. Nelson, B. Moore, R. Miller, C. Schideman, R. Stevens, and J. Woolsey.

Second row: M. Higgins, J. Morris, B. Marks, R. Wash-abaugh, B. Brown, M. Gregg, and J. Jones.

First row: B. Faulkner, J. Miller, A. Pferschy, M. Gordon, O. Martin, L. Carlson, E. Bybee, M. Taylor, F. Walker, G. Steele, I. Lasley, and D. Powell.

more, and D. Totten.

Third row: W. Goodwin, D. England, R. Godsil, J. Philblad, G. Anderson, G. Moore, C. Philblad, B. Wise, W. McNaught, G. Bradbury, F. Nelson, D. McCoy, R. Johnson, D. White, and J. Miller.

1954 VARSITY FOOTBALL

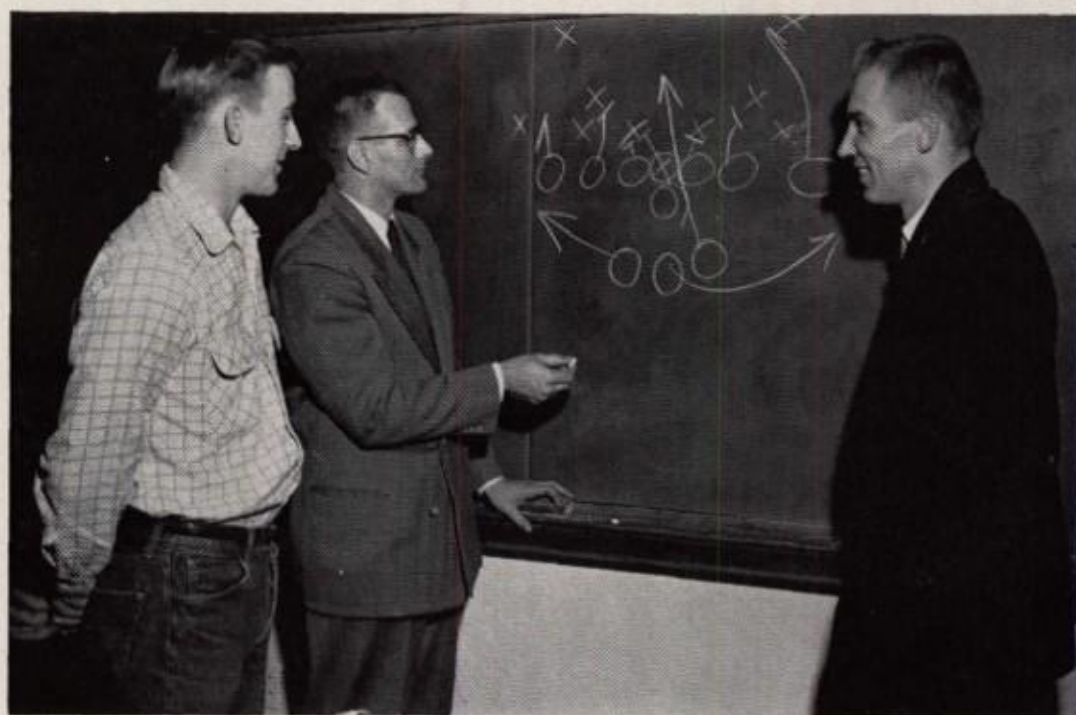

Knoxville High School's football team turned in a moderately successful football season last fall by winning five games and losing three.

The Bullets defeated Cuba 24 to 0, Corpus Christi 27 to 7, Sherrard 32 to 19 in non-conference games. Knoxville had a heavy line and a fast backfield. When they were playing their best, they were a hard combination to beat.

Knoxville suffered three defeats in conference play by the powerful teams of Abingdon, Aledo, and Roseville. They won over Alexis 20 to 6 in the Homecoming tilt, and ROVA 14 to 12 in the final game of the season. The Bullets placed five men on the All-Star squad, one on the first team, three on the second, and one on the honorable mention.

They finished fourth in the Little Six Conference with two wins and three losses. Eleven seniors, who had the experience of playing on the varsity team for three years, will be gone from next year's team.

Winning three games and losing three, the Baby Bullets completed their football season. They won their first game over ROVA 13 to 7, and lost to Lombard, Churchill, and Hitchcock. In spite of their defeat, they scored against their opponents twice. This is evidence of their fighting spirit. The Baby Bullets came back valiantly in their last two games by beating Winola 6 to 0, and Abingdon 12 to 6. These boys will strengthen the varsity junior high squad next year.

All new football equipment has been purchased for the junior high football team next year. This should contribute a great deal to their appearance and success.

First row: E. Bybee, L. Rader, B. Stomberg, J. Steele, M. Gordon, C. Philblad, J. Miller, and F. Wright.
 Second row: B. Wise, G. Shaver, D. Gibbs, I. Lasley, W. Bradbury, D. Clark, E. Breece, J. Scalf, B. Faulkner, R. Webber.

1954 LITTLE SIX CHAMPIONS

Under the direction of Coach Wendell Stamps during his last year at KHS, the Blue Bullet track squad led by captain Ed Breece turned in a very fine season, winning the Little Six Conference meet, taking second in the Knox County meet, and winning all their dual meets.

As Little Six Champions, the cinder squad represented the first championship team Knoxville has had in any sport for two years.

The season was highlighted by the fine performances of seniors Jim Steele and LeRoy Rader. Steele was one of the top hurdlers in the area, and Rader collected many points for the Bullets' cause in the distance runs.

Weight man Bill Wise was elected captain of the 1955 track team.

1954 BASEBALL

Undoubtedly one of the most successful teams at KHS last year was the baseball team. They compiled a terrific record of 10 wins and only 2 losses. Several of the regular players batted well over the .400 mark. Jim Swanson was the captain and regular shortstop of the team. The rest of the team was composed of juniors and sophomores. John King did a fine job with the baseball squad and deserves some real credit.

1955 GOLF TEAM

BOYS' INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

Golf was added to the sports curriculum in the spring of 1954. Jack Manuel, P.E. instructor and junior high coach, helped the boys schedule meets and set the requirements for earning letters.

The 1955 golf team was composed of two seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores.

First row: G. Heidenblut, D. Anderson, R. Johnson, B. Wise, M. Marquith, C. Philblad, G. Moore, J. Smith, N. Earnst, and W. Felder.

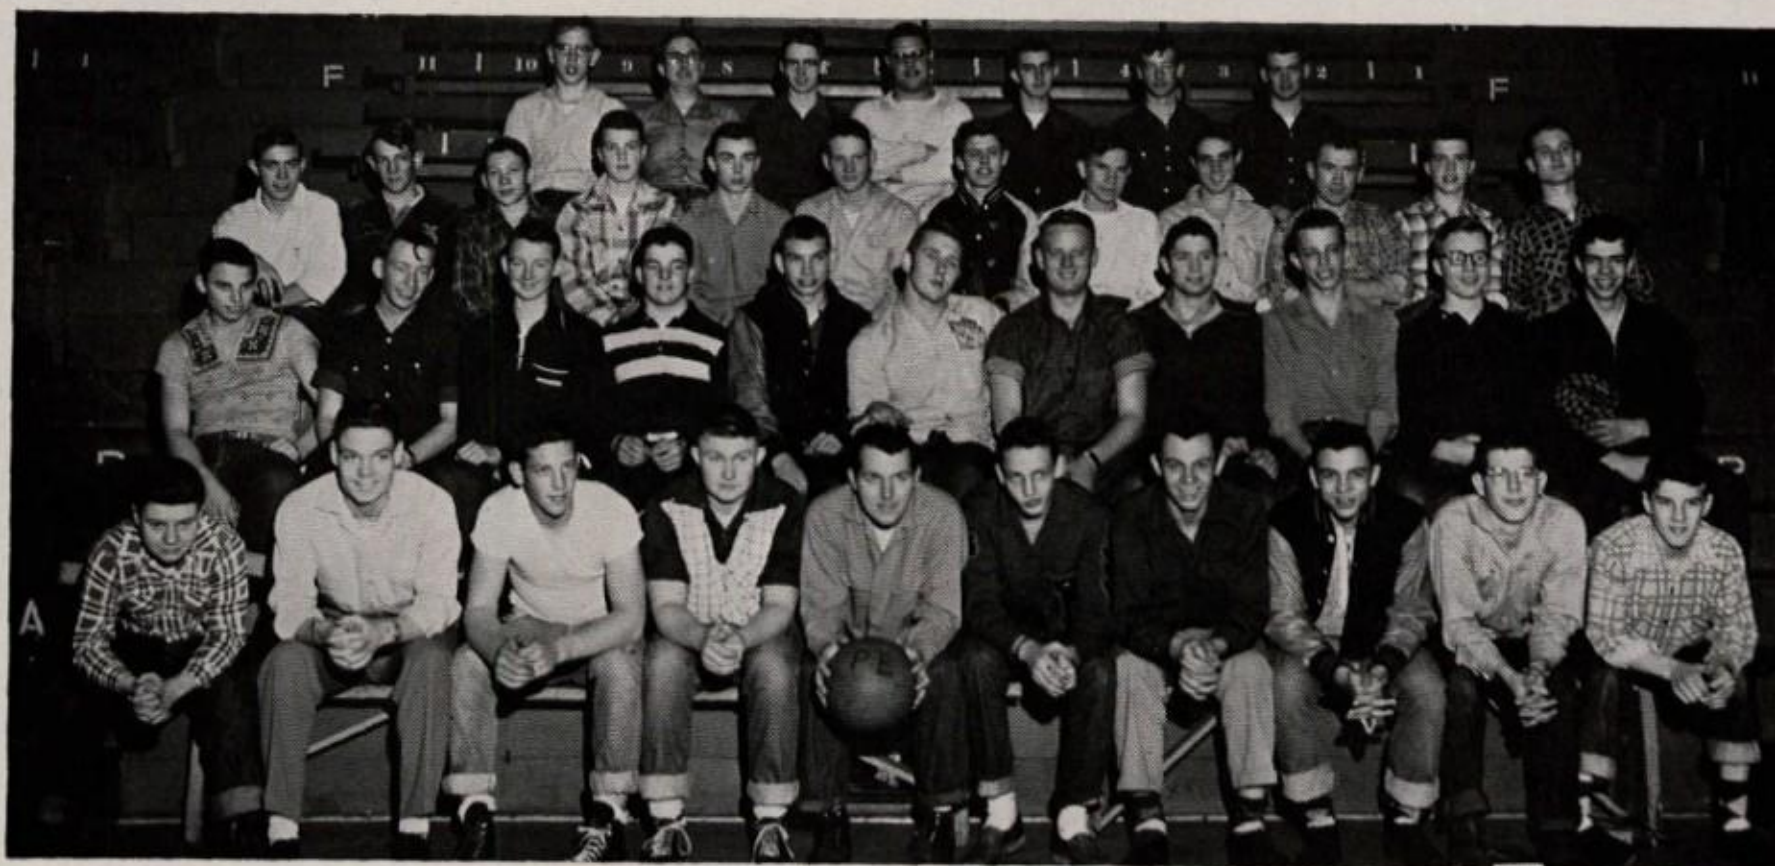

Second row: D. Miyler, D. McCormick, D. McMullin, D. Hughes, W. McNaught, R. Chism, B. Sweborg, J. Philblad, D. Dinsmore, and R. Godsil.

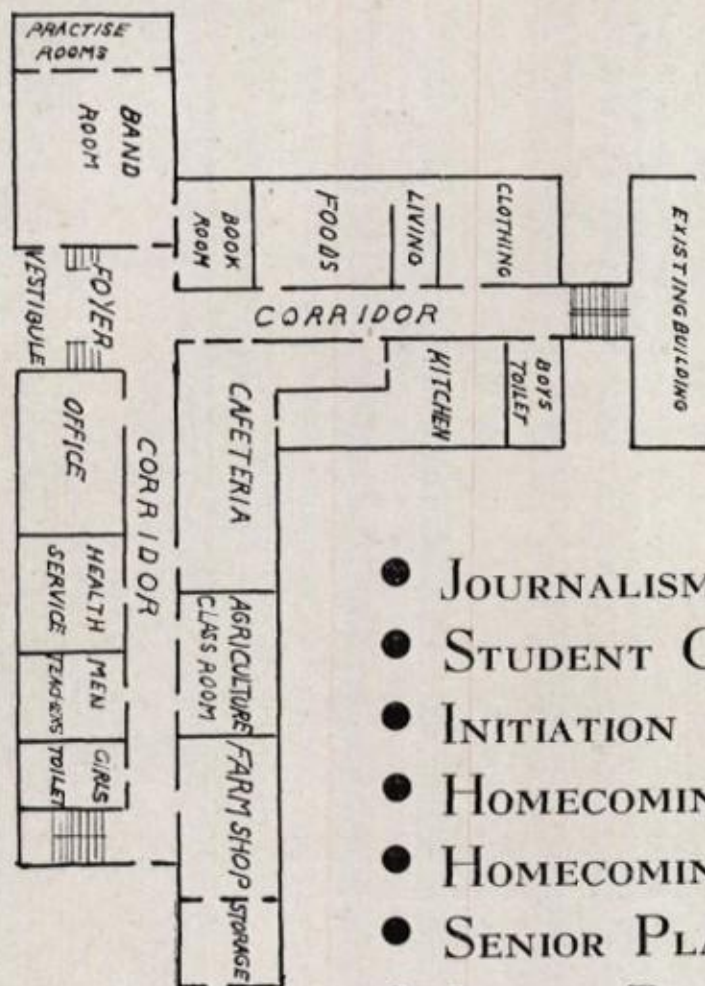

Under the sponsorship of Jack Manuel, the Boys' Intramural Council was formed. A successful year was spent under the direction of Milton Marquith, president.

The forty-five boys took part in many different intramural sports which were conducted during the noon hour.

Third row: J. Sopher, G. Derham, K. Townsend, T. England, A. Pferschy, B. Faulkner, D. Stomberg, O. Martin, J. Gladfelder, E. Bybee, J. Marks, and F. Nelson.

JOURNALISM STAFF

Jester editor, Sarah Lacy; adviser, Mrs. Jean Dibden; and Blue Bulletin editor, Barbara Lundgren.

The 1954-1955 Journalism Class was made up of 23 members. Work began with a meeting in the summer to assign stories and positions for the Blue Bulletin. Plans were discussed for the Jester.

Barbara Lundgren, editor-in-chief of the Blue Bulletin, spent much of her time, with the help and cooperation of the staff, in getting the paper to press on time and distributed weekly.

Sarah Lacy, editor-in-chief of the Jester; Betty McMillan, assistant editor; and Mrs. Jean Dibden, adviser; worked with the members of the class in planning the lay-out of the 1955 Jester and write-ups.

The class worked throughout the year getting subscriptions to the Blue Bulletin and Jester.

To help finance the Jester, the Journalism Class sponsored concessions during the noon hour, held a Jester Carnival, bake sales, and picked up corn which farmers contributed.

The staff was kept busy all year writing stories for the paper, distributing pictures, and planning the Jester campaign and many other jobs that go with putting out a school paper and yearbook.

Journalism Class receipts and expenditures were capably recorded by the business manager, Louise Bost.

Standing: D. Prince, J. Whitsitt, J. Morris, R. Godsil, J. Smith, G. Clark, G. Bradbury, J. Tarochione, C. Philblad, B. Moore, J. Marks, and L. Humphreys.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council successfully carried out a very busy year under the leadership of Sarah Lacy, president; Ernie Bybee, vice-president; Judy Block, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. Don Prince, adviser.

The varied activities carried on throughout the year were: the annual magazine drive and March of Dimes auction, organization of Homecoming parade, and directed student participation at the Open House of the new high school.

The Student Council was proud to have contributed the following: Junior High football equipment and a Crowell charging sled to the athletic department, a record player and records, a cash contribution to the orchestra uniform fund, and money to be applied on landscaping to the Board of Education.

The council organized and was host for an Invitational Student Council Convention held at Knoxville, April 14. On April 21-23, the officers and Dr. Prince attended the State Student Council Convention at Peoria, Illinois. Ernie Bybee was nominated as a candidate for first vice-president of the State Student Council. Sarah Lacy was chosen as a group discussion leader for the convention.

S. Lacy, D. Prince, J. Block, and E. Bybee.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

The traditional freshman initiation occurred on Thursday, October 5. This is the day when the seniors show their authority over the meek, green freshies.

In the halls at noon there was much confusion. Everywhere the freshies were praising the "almighty seniors."

That evening a party was held where freshmen and new teachers performed their stunts.

Homecoming Parade

First place in the Homecoming parade class division went to the sophomores with their clever float entitled "Knoxville Beats". The juniors took second honors with their "Mow 'Em Down" float.

The F.H.A. girls took first honors in the club division. The girls represented soapboxes. A clever float entered by the Intramural Council was entitled "We'll Dump Alexis".

Sally Hickok, mounted on her horse Rocket, led the parade. The Knoxville High School band also added music and color to the parade.

"An Evening In Paris"

The highlight of KHS's 1954 Homecoming was the crowning of the queen, Barbara Lundgren, escorted by Gene Bradbury, football captain, and attended by Ila Bybee.

To the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance", the queen's court entered.

The first maid-of-honor was Carol Tucker, escorted by basketball captain Charles Philblad and attended by Patsy Cotton.

Sarah Lacy, escorted by Bill Wise, track captain, and attended by Judy Anderson, was second maid-of-honor.

Jimmy Sherwood and Kathy Templeton served as crown bearers.

Senior marshalls were Dick Hughes and Ralph Chism and the junior marshalls were Sue Smith and Charles Schideman.

In the atmosphere of "An Evening in Paris", the queen and her court were crowned by Mr. and Mrs. James Litchfield.

SENIOR PLAY . . .

"Nine Girls" by Wilfred Pettitt was the name of the play presented on December 9 by the senior class under the direction of Mrs. Grace Van den Heurk. Carol Tucker and Wanda Knowles served as assistant directors.

Members of the cast were: Betty McMillan, Carol Wetterburg, Sarah Lacy, Louise Bost, Jackie Smith, Kay Markham, Barbara Lundgren,

"NINE GIRLS"

Jill Block, Janet England, and Carole Carlson.

The play, a three-act mystery, took place at a sorority clubhouse in California's Sierra Nevada Mountains. The plot concerned the news of the death of one girl and the murder of another. The killer was finally exposed to her friends and captured as she was making an attempt on the life of a third sorority sister, her best friend.

JUNIOR PLAY . . . "CURTAIN GOING UP"

On April 29 the Junior Class presented a pleasing 3-act comedy entitled "Curtain Going Up". Mrs. Grace Van den Heurk successfully directed the cast of seventeen and was assisted by Jill Block and Ruth Ann Gustafson. The comedy is the story of the production of a high school play and the obstacles the young director, Miss Burgess, has to face.

The members of the cast are as follows: Judy Block, Dick White, Barbara Ouderkirk, Jim Taro-chione, JoAnne Hughbanks, Jerry Smith, Margaret Cronoble, Joe Ehringer, Virginia Tilton, Wade McNaught, Sharon James, Bob Faulkner, Lynda Sweborg, Fred Nelson, Sandra Houston, Sally Humphreys, Pat Miller, Sylvia Poole, and Dorothy Whitson.

Through all the troubles, Director Burgess manages to present a successful play and meet with everyone's approval.

"MOONLIGHT AND ROSES"

A. Dibden, J. Dibden, J. Moore, B. Faulkner, J. Gladfelter, J. Schulz, E. Bybee, and G. Steele.

The graduating class of 1955 was honored by the juniors on the evening of May 6 at the Junior-Senior Prom.

The prom was held in the ballroom of the Galesburg Club. Decorations carried out the theme of "Moonlight and Roses."

After arriving, the guests were served a delicious dinner. Master of Ceremonies Jerry Smith presented the speakers of the evening. The president of the junior class, Ernie Bybee, extended a cordial welcome to the guests. The senior class president, Chuck Philblad, gave a response to the welcome. Several other speakers were then introduced.

Following the program there was dancing to the music of the Mellow Tones. As midnight drew near the melody of the theme song, "Moonlight and Roses", reminded all that the pleasant evening would soon be a memory.

We, the senior class of 1955, wish to thank the junior class for a lovely evening that will remain a cherished memory of our happy days at KHS.

KHS band completed one of its most successful seasons this year under the guidance of Mr. Don Zimmerman.

The 58 band members performed exchange assemblies, were heard over WGIL, played a Christmas concert, a spring concert, and a concert for PTA, and gave several marching performances.

The highlight of the year was the holding of the District Band and Chorus contest and the District Solo and Ensemble contest here at KHS. The band, several ensembles, and many individuals took part. Nine entries from Knoxville received first place ratings in the solo and ensemble contest.

K. H. S. CHOIR

The KHS choir, under the capable direction of Don Zimmerman, had a very busy year. Their first appearance was at Homecoming on October 29.

The choir was busy during the Christmas season with three performances: (1) Christmas Concert at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington; (2) Kiwanis Club Ladies' Night presentation and (3) the annual Christmas concert.

After the Christmas rush, the group prepared for a concert, February 17, at a joint meeting of the Knoxville churches. Several choir members took part in the solo and ensemble contest held at KHS on March 12. On April 2 the entire group sang at the District Six Music Contest, also at Knoxville. The Knoxville Woman's Club was hostesses to the group on March 15. Then on March 17 the choir appeared at the PTA meeting. Closing the performances was the Spring concert in May. The climax of the year's program was the music banquet and dinner dance May 13.

First row: M. Condreay, M. Gustafson, N. Sornberger, R. Folger, J. Craig, J. Pfersch, S. Hughbanks, N. England, I. Caldwell.

Second row: W. Hoppock, M. Murphy, V. Earnst, B. Winchell, E. Sutliff, M. Wilson, P. Beecher, P. Carlson, B. Delawder,

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

This year the Girls' Glee Club was directed by Mrs. Harriette Huston. The group is composed of approximately thirty-five girls from the freshman and sophomore classes.

Their first appearance of the year was on October 29 at the Homecoming stunt show. They next sang at the annual high school Christmas Concert on December 21. Just before Christmas, the girls went through the halls singing Christmas carols to the students.

After Christmas they went to work on numbers for the District Six Music Contest. Several of the girls took part in the solo and ensemble contest on March 12, and the entire chorus participated in the organizational contest on April 2. Both of these contests were at Knoxville. The girls also sang at the annual spring concert on May 10. They were rewarded for their work with an invitation to the music banquet on May 13.

CUSTODIANS --- COOKS --- BUS DRIVERS

We wish to present the people behind the scenes who have contributed so much to our physical comforts.

To the custodians fell the responsibility of keeping the buildings and grounds clean and presentable for inspection at all times. The marvelous job they have done is evident to all of us.

Our capable bus drivers delivered us to classes on time in all kinds of weather and returned us safely home. Their job is one of tremendous responsibility and for their ability and courtesy, we thank them.

To the ladies who fed us and so efficiently operated our cafeteria we express our sincere thanks. It is no small task to feed each day approximately 300 students in the time allotted. The cheerful atmosphere of the lunch hour made a pleasant break in a busy day.

PATRONS

To help finance the Jester, the staff sent letters to the farmers having students in the Knoxville Junior and Senior High School, asking for a bushel of corn or $1.50. This corn was sold to Dale Washbaugh. The money received from this project was used to help pay for the yearbook. The Jester Staff would like to thank all of those that donated. We hope you enjoy our book.
